

A four day adventure designed to help a man recover his masculine heart

When most men boil their lives down it looks something like... get a good education, a good job, a good marriage, a good family, a good church and then try really hard not to blow it. Most of us have at one time or another heard that voice deep within us whispering that there is something more, much more. But how do we find it?

It is our desire that this weekend will help men be rescued from the things that keep them in bondage to shame, guilt and isolation and invite them into a life of freedom in God.

The Weekend

Through teaching sessions, film clips, personal stories, times for reflection and journaling and adventure activities, men will be offered an opportunity to reconnect with God in a powerful and fresh way. Our message is unique, and hard hitting, inspired by teachings from John Eldredge, Peter Scazzero, Brene Brown, CS Lewis, Henri Nouwen, Richard Rohr, and many others. It is a message that has been developed out of the True Pursuit team's own personal walk through breakthrough, healing and restoration.
